Finalists will model provided Salt Life apparel and a winner for each category (2) will be named on Sunday at Salt Life Food Shack at 8 PM. In addition to the two winners, a team of Salt Life Models (ranging from 6-12 individuals) will be assembled and named from the finalists at the awards ceremony.

The two winners will each receive a variety of prizes including but not limited to: $250 cash bonus, featured as 2010 winner(s) of Salt Life Model Search in the Salt Life merchandise catalog and on the Salt Life web site, featured in the 2011 Salt Life Calendar, complimentary Salt Life apparel and free digital photos from shoots conducted by Salt Life for use in personal portfolios.

Some, or all, of these girls may also be eligible for use in the 2011 Salt Life Calendar.

This is the 7th year for the Surfing the Blues Surf Contest and Salt Life is excited to be a part of the 20th Anniversary of the George's Music Springing the Blues Festival. There are a variety of divisions for the surf contest, both on the amateur and professional levels. The most exciting new addition for this year is the inclusion of new youth divisions. “We have added several new categories for the kids, an 8 and younger division, a 9-year old division and 10 and under” says Paul West, President of the Florida Surfing Association. “It is all about making more opportunities available to the community.”

The Jacksonville Beach area has long been a hotbed of surfing talent with such stars as Karina Petroni, Cody and Evan Thompson, Asher Nolan and most recently PJ Satterwhite and Mallory Turner. Expect to see a good turn out for both the amateur and pro divisions. “It has been a cold winter and we are all excited for warmer weather, waves and the opportunity to get salty,” said Greg Saig, partner at Salt Life Food Shack.
